

BIOGRAPHY

Juan Chioran

"Gustavo"

Juan Chioran is known for his role as Francobollo Garibaldi, the father of Raven Symone's character in Disney Channel's "The Cheetah Girls." His other live-action credits include "The Border," "This is Wonderland" and "Tracker."

Chioran has lent his voice to many animated series and commercials, including "Hotel Transylvania: The Series," "Paw Patrol," "Elinor Wonders Why," "Arthur," "Atomic Puppet" and "Grossology."

Born and raised in Alberti, Argentina, Chioran moved to Toronto with his family in 1975 at the age of 12. After graduating from the University of Alberta with a BFA, he began performing for the Stratford Festival, Shaw Festival and several regional theaters across Canada. He made his Broadway debut on the US national tour of "Kiss of the Spiderwoman."

Chioran currently resides in Toronto and Stratford with his wife and dog.