

MINES GAMEDAY

COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES vs. #23 CHADRON STATE
FEB. 9, 2023 / VOLK GYMNASIUM

Mines wraps up the dual season here on Senior Night, hosting #23 Chadron State looking to end the regular season on a high note.

SENIOR NIGHT

Before tonight's dual, Mines will honor a large senior class that has had tremendous success over the past four (or five) years. The Orediggers will send off Tyler Krause, Teague Dilbeck, Dylan Yancey, Carter Noehre, Jack Damenti, KJ Kearns, Levi Farris, Anderson Salisbury, and Anthony Atria from this year's graduating class, and also honor Wes Rayburn and Perry Rodenbeck as the pair graduated back in December.

IN THE POLLS

Mines is receiving votes in the third regular-season NWCA coaches' poll out in late January, with both Grayston DiBlasi (#9 at 141) and Anderson Salisbury (#5 at 197) in the individual rankings. Chadron State is #23 led by #2 Quen Campbell at 133 pounds.

MOVING ON UP

Anderson Salisbury continues to rack up wins in his career, and the two-time all-American is in elite company on the all-time wins list. At 81-25 all-time in his career, Salisbury is one of only 13 Oredigger wrestlers to reach 75 wins, a mark most recently achieved by former teammate Weston Hunt (78); Salisbury just passed Hunt to enter the all-time Mines top 10 in wins.

DIBLASI NEARS 50

Only a sophomore, Grayston DiBlasi has been putting up wins at a historic pace in his two years in Golden, and he is already climbing up the Orediggers' all-time falls list. His 20 career pins makes him one of just 10 wrestlers to ever reach that mark, and he is Mines' active leader in falls. At 22-4, DiBlasi has put together back-to-back 20-win seasons and is an impressive 49-11 in two years as he aims to win his 50th career match tonight.

MINES VS. CHADRON HISTORY

Mines and Chadron State square off for the 38th time dating back to 1962, with the Eagles holding a 24-11-2 series lead. Mines, however, has won four in a row including a dominating 37-3 win in Nebraska last season that included pins from Grayston DiBlasi, Carter Noehre, and Anderson Salisbury.

NEXT UP

Mines will host the Rocky Mountain Collegiate Open Sunday downstairs in Steinhauer Fieldhouse at 10 a.m.
