*only as MIAA school

The Beginning and Early Years

The MIAA was established in 1912 as 14 schools joined together and created the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

In 1924, the Association reorganized to include only the five regional state universities. That same year, the MIAA announced it would sponsor football, basketball, and outdoor track and field. Over the next 30 years, the conference added the sports of tennis and indoor track and field.

The Start of the NCAA Era

The 1957 season started the movement of what we would now know as the MIAA as it joined the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) College Division. The first-ever national championship as an NCAA member was won by Southwest Missouri State in men's golf. After the switch to the NCAA membership, the addition of sports for cross country, wrestling, swimming, and baseball soon followed.

Changes of the Eighties

Another monumental moment in league history came in 1981 and 1982. Ken B. Jones was appointed the MIAA's first full-time commissioner in 1981. The following year the Association started sponsoring championships in women's athletics for basketball, cross country, softball, tennis, track and field, and volleyball. Central Missouri made history when it became the first school in NCAA history to win national titles in the same year for both men's and women's basketball.

A decade that started with change, ended with change. In 1989, the MIAA expanded into the state of Kansas by adding Pittsburg State and Washburn. The two members became the first schools outside of Missouri to be added to the MIAA.

The Move Towards The Modern MIAA

The MIAA turned a new page on July 1, 1992, when the NCAA Division II conference changed its name from the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. The decision to make the change originated in 1989, when Pittsburg State and Washburn gained membership but didn't occur until after Emporia State, the third Kansas school, earned membership.

In 1997, Ken B. Jones retired after 16 years as the Commissioner. Following his retirement, the MIAA CEOs named Ralph McFillen as the next Commissioner. Northwest Missouri football made history in back-to-back years. They were the first team in Division II history to be national champions with a 15-0 record during the 1998 season and in 1999 won the longest NCAA Championship game at any level with a four-overtime victory over Carson-Newman.

As a new Millennium took over, the MIAA continued to make history. On October 17, 2002, over 26,000 fans filed into Arrowhead Stadium to watch a rivalry game between Northwest Missouri and Pittsburg State. The game is the largest crowd to watch an MIAA event and one of the largest crowds in NCAA Division II football history.

In 2007, Commissioner Ralph McFillen announced his retirement and the MIAA CEO Council selected Jim Johnson to become the next Commissioner. A year into his leadership, the MIAA unveiled a new logo, moved the Baseball Championship to Community America Ballpark in Kansas City, Kansas and added women's golf as a championship. The following year, the Association conducted TitleFest, crowning eight conference champions over a 10-week span all in the Kansas City area.

As the first decade of the 2000s came to an end, Jim Johnson stepped down as Commissioner and the CEO Council announced Dr. Bob Boerigter as the MIAA's fourth full-time Commissioner.

Expansion Era and National Championship Dominance

On July 29, 2010, the MIAA CEO Council voted to extend invitations to the University of Central Oklahoma and Northeastern State University to become members of the league. The expansion process was not quite over and on September 24, 2010, it voted to extend invitations to the University of Nebraska Kearney and Lindenwood University to become conference institutions starting in the 2012-13 season.

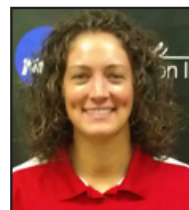

The 2012-2013 season saw the Association bring back the sport of men's soccer and wrestling. Then in 2016, the conference added women's bowling as a sport. February 2017 is when Mike Racy became the fifth Commissioner after Dr. Bob Boerigter announced his retirement.

With two members departing after the 2018-19 season, the MIAA again looked to expand for the 2019-2020 season. The MIAA CEO Council wasted little time and announced that Newman University and Rogers State University would be admitted as associate members starting that fall season. The two schools, already in the conference's footprint, brought the league to 12 full-time members and two associate members in the states of Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, and Oklahoma.

Considered to be one of the best conferences in all of NCAA Division II, the MIAA backed that up in the 2010s. The Association won at least one national championship every season from 2008-2009 to 2018-2019. In the span of national dominance, 27 national titles were won including five teams going undefeated.

ABOUT WASHBURN

Washburn is a top-notch university in an urban setting where students are becoming their best selves.

Nestled in the heart of Topeka - the capital city with about 127 thousand residents - Washburn offers students from small towns a big-city feel, while providing students from major metropolitan areas a more manageable environment.

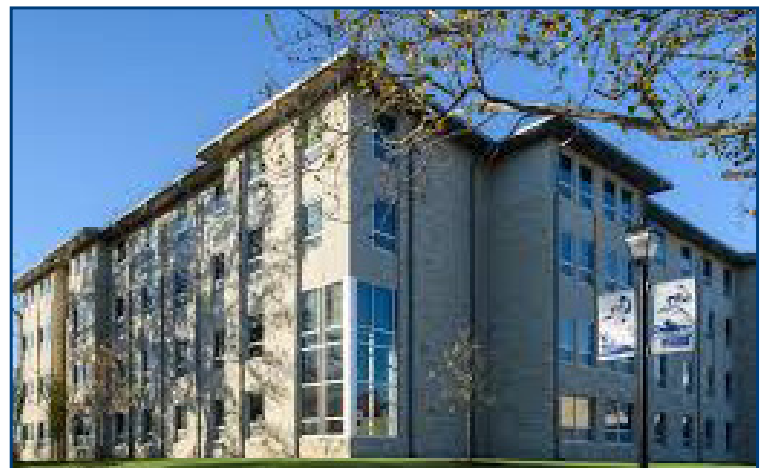

Washburn's beautiful campus - on 160 acres - is easy to navigate with state-of-the art facilities. Our Tech campus on Huntoon offers industry-standard programs leading to in-demand jobs. And with our low student/faculty ratio and small classes, you're going to get to know your professors.

Internally, we're organized into five schools, the College of Arts & Sciences, the School of Applied Studies, the Business School, the School of Nursing, the School of Law and the Washburn Institute of Technology (Washburn Tech.)

THIS IS WASHBURN

- Affordable education: Tuition is charged per credit. If you're from Colorado, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma or Texas, you'll pay resident tuition!
- Student/faculty ratio: 17:1. And 49 percent of undergraduate courses have fewer than 20 students.
- Courses taught by experienced faculty: 81 percent of Washburn's full-time faculty members hold doctorates or the highest degree awarded in their discipline. No courses are taught by graduate teaching assistants. This means undergraduate students work directly with professors in courses, research and other projects.
- Academic options: More than 200 courses of study are offered.
- Nationally recognized: U.S News and World Report has recognized Washburn for its low student debt upon graduation.
- Graduate with experience: More than 1,000 Washburn students participate in an internship each year. In several majors an internship or other hands-on experience in a professional work environment is required for graduation.

- Public or private? Washburn is publicly funded, independently governed and state coordinated. In addition to funding from city and county taxes, Washburn receives financial support from the State of Kansas.
- Academics are a priority: On-campus tutoring options, study centers and the First Year Experience program are available to ensure students are successful.

DR. JERRY B. FARLEY

Previously, Farley held positions as the vice president of community relations and economic development and vice president for administration at the University of Oklahoma where he was the chief fiscal responsible for a budget of more than one half billion dollars. He was also the chief financial officer at the University of Oklahoma's Health Sciences Center and at Oklahoma State University at Stillwater.

Farley holds an undergraduate degree in finance and accounting, a master's of business administration degree and a doctorate in higher education administration, all from the University of Oklahoma. He is a certified public accountant and has been the president and chairman of the board of several state and national professional organizations. He has authored or co-authored numerous articles and books on finance and accounting.

Serving on local and state boards has always been a priority for Farley. He currently or previously, served on the Heartland Visioning, Red Cross, American Cancer Society, United Way, local and state Chambers of Commerce and economic development corporations, including Go Topeka. He is the recipient of numerous awards for outstanding contributions in public service, accounting, and higher education.

ATHLETIC LEADERSHIP

LOREN FERRE' - ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Loren Ferré became Washburn's director of athletics in February of 1996 after a six-year appointment at Black Hills State University in Spearfish, S.D. Ferré is a dynamic leader who has implemented many internal changes within the athletic department since arriving on campus. While at Washburn all of the athletic facilities have been renovated or built from scratch including the $20 million indoor athletic facility, one of the best venues in the country.

He has put increasing scholarships and departmental fund-raising at the top of his list. He has been at Washburn for 36 of the 42 MIAA titles won and 113 of the 123 NCAA appearances in school history. In 2005, Ferré was named the Central Region Athletic Director of the Year.

At Washburn, Ferré has been instrumental in the establishment of a strong Ichabod Club support team and the raising of funds for athletic scholarships.

While at BHSU, Ferré was also director of the Donald E. Young Sports Fitness Center, a 172,000 square foot, $10.2 million facility. During his Black Hills tenure, the athletics department nearly tripled its outside revenue, including large increases in ticket sales and scholarship funding. All 10 varsity teams won a conference title in his final three years.

Before joining the staff at Black Hills State, Ferré spent 17 years at the University of North Texas. He was the director of the Coliseum (1987-90) and was the associate and assistant director since 1980. He held the post of event coordinator (1978-80).

Ferré is a 1971 graduate of Texas Christian University, earning a bachelor of arts degree. He earned a master's in journalism from North Texas in 1982.

Ferré also served a three-year term as Chair of the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball South Central Regional Chairman.

Ferré and his wife Sarah, have two daughters, Caitlin and Hope.

WASHBURN FACILITIES

THE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER AS WELL AS THE ATHLETIC TRAINING FACILITIES HELP WASHBURN STUDENT-ATHLETES BE READY FOR THE COURT AND THE FIELD...

- The Whiting Field house expansion project was a $7.2 million renovation completed prior to the 2010-11 school year and is one of the largest training facilities in the MIAA.
- There are more than 12,000 square feet of workout space inside the weight room facility.
- There are 21 weight platforms for multiple teams to use at the same time.
- A 39-yard warm up lane made from field turf gives student athletes an area to jog and loosen up and cool down after their workouts.
- The Washburn Athletic Training center was renovated in 2012 and features a Hydroworx aquatic therapy pool along with additional therapy and injury prevention equipment and treatment options.

CONDITIONING AREA

Nearly $6 million has been spent on renovations to Yager Stadium at Moore Bowl in the last 10 years and the facility continues to serve as one of the finest in NCAA Division II.

The 2016 season will feature the new Shaw Turf field which was installed with a new design prior to the start of the season.

Prior to the 2014 season, the Ichabods added a 41-foot by 31-foot digital scoreboard with an improved sound system which is the second-largest in the MIAA.

Previous upgrades to Yager Stadium are the new lights and towers positioned above the playing surface. Put up over the summer of 2012, the laser-installed lights will provide Washburn football and soccer players with a brighter and safer atmosphere and will make producing television games at night easier.

Prior to that, $4.3 million was spent in 2002 on a new press box, University suites, hospitality lounge and a booster area. Along with new restroom facilities, concessions stands and a viewing point at the north end of the field, Yager Stadium's renovations have reshaped the scenery around the field and made it one of the Washburn campus main focal points.

The new name of the stadium is in honor of former Ichabod runningback Gary Yager. An anonymous donor pledged $1 million. The first lead gift to the renovation was from former Ichabod defensive end Bernie Bianchino, who donated $500,000 for the Bianchino Pavilion, which houses six suites, a president's suite, media facilities, new restroom and concession facilities and meeting rooms.

Moore Bowl has served as the home for Washburn football since its dedication on September 28, 1928, - a 20-12 loss to William Jewel. Throughout its 84-year history, the bowl has been witness to hundreds of high school and college games, long-standing conference rivalries and the tornado of 1966.

Construction of the original bowl was part of a $215,000 athletic project, which also included the addition of Whiting Field House to the Washburn campus. By taking advantage of the natural depression, the bowl was constructed in just seven months at a cost of approximately $30,000. The construction work was under the direction of Cleveland S. Loper, head of the engineering department, with the contract for the excavation given to C.A. Ritchie of Topeka.

The original design for the horseshoe-shaped bowl (overall size of 400' by 650') called for 15,000 seats — 8,000 in the original construction with the remaining seats to be built along the north end of the horseshoe. Additional seating was not added and the bowl currently has a seating capacity of 7,200.

A press box and concessions stands were added to the facility in 1963 but destroyed three years later in the '66 tornado.

The bowl was named in honor of George Godfrey Moore, a Topeka sports enthusiast who had developed a reputation throughout the Midwest as a keen sportsman and friend of Washburn.

YAGER STADIUM

NOW OPEN

This $20 million state-of-the-art facility was unanimously approved by the Washburn Board of Regents in December 2017 and has since received more than $6 million in donations for its construction. The facility will be located in the southwest end of campus along 21st Street between the baseball and softball fields.

Once built, the facility will have two distinct areas. One side will be a 100-yard turf field for use by Washburn's football, soccer, baseball and softball teams. The other side... well, that'll be specifically for the cross country and track & field teams.

Separated by drop down netting, the indoor track & field side will rival most NCAA Division I facilities, let alone Division II. This climate controlled facility will allow student-athletes complete freedom to train at optimal levels throughout the year. Other features of the track & field side include a 60-meter runway located in the infield, along with designated lanes for jumps and pole vault all surrounded by a 200-meter banked track - the only one in Division II and one just 28 in all of the NCAA.

What about seating you ask, well, there will be plenty of it... 1,500 seats to be exact, allowing Washburn the ability to host regional and national championships right in Topeka, Kansas.
