UNCONFIRMED REPORTS SAY BOLSHEVIKI OVERTHROW OWN

TROOPS REBEL IN TWO CITIES OF HUNGARY AS SPIRIT OF REVOLT SPREADS IN THE DUAL MONARCHY

2,000 Soldiers Who Mutinied at Gyor and Pecs Condemned to Death, Says Report; Violent Demonstrations in Numerous Cities; Army Affected

Paris, June 28.—There have been rebellious outbreaks among the garrisons of the cities of Gyor and Pecs, Hungary, as a result of which 2,000 of the military involved in the mutinies have been condemned to death, according to a report received by The Matin to-day.

Both Austria and Hungary are affected by the revolutionary movement, which is said to be in progress on a large scale in Austria, the newspaper's advices declare. The spirit of revolt is said to be strongly pervasive in the army.

Violent demonstrations are reported to have taken place in numerous cities.

Pecs is the Hungarian name for the city of Funfkuchen, 106 miles southwest of Budapest. The city has a population of about 45,000.

Attitude of States. Washington, June 28.—German and Austrian propaganda representatives in the United States Government are favoring the freedom of Poland without regard for what happens to the Czechs, Slovaks and the Jugos-Slavs generally.

EVEN DETAILS ARE KNOWN BY WILSON

So Deadly in Earnest About War His Efforts Are Unbounded

Chicago, June 28.—An intimate picture of President Wilson's familiarity with the industrial phases of the war preparations of the United States was given to-day by Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the Shipping Board, in an address before a meeting here of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

"We are applying manufacturing principles to the shipbuilding business, and we find these methods successful," Mr. Hurley said. "Incidentally it may interest you to know that the methods adopted have been followed with close interest by President Wilson. I think there is no importance in telling you that the President handles all his work so systematically that he finds time to give a part of his time even to the more intricate problems of the various departments."

"The President knows more about costs than any of you would believe to be possible in the case of a great war executive. You know that Congress allotted the President an appropriation of $100,000,000 for emergency war purposes. He personally kept his own accounts, and you may be confident that every dollar was carefully expended under his direction."

FRENCH TROOPS MAKE GAIN IN A WOOD SOUTHEAST OF AMIENS, TAKING 100 MEN

Paris, June 28.—French troops last night carried out an operation on the front southeast of Amiens, by means of which their line was advanced in Senecat Wood, on the Avre River, the War Office announced this afternoon. In this action and in other fighting between the Marne and the Oureq, south of Dammard, prisoners to the number of 122 were taken.

The text of the statement follows: "Northwest of Montdidier French troops advanced their line in Senecat Wood and captured 100 prisoners. Between the Marne and the Oureq a local operation was carried out south of Dammard, our troops taking twenty-two prisoners. The night was calm on the rest of the front."

VON KUEHLMANN'S RESIGNATION GIVEN

Reported to Have Been Offered Wednesday; Probably Will Be Accepted

Paris, June 28.—Dr. von Kuehlmann offered his resignation as German Foreign Secretary on Wednesday, says a Zurich dispatch to The Journal. The dispatch adds that it is believed the Kaiser will accept the resignation.

At one o'clock to-day less than two thousand voters had marked ballots, but with that number recorded Liberals, Returned Soldiers, and Conservatives were equally certain of sufficient margin to ensure victory. Very little claim appears to be held by the supporters of the Independent Socialist that Mr. McDonald has other than an "also ran" chance.

Details of the treaty have been printed in The Nation's Voice, a newspaper of Cracow, according to a dispatch to The London Times from Milan.

Typoid Epidemic Among Enemy Troops in France Reported

Amsterdam, June 28.—Rumors are in circulation, say The Echo Belge, that an epidemic of typhoid is raging among the German soldiers in Northern France. Several units are reported to have had virtually their entire personnel affected with this disease.

Grand Duke Nicholas Is Said to Have Been Proclaimed Emperor of Russia and Lenine and Trotzky in Flight; London Receives Rumors With Reserve

London, June 28.—According to unconfirmed reports to-day the Bolsheviki Government at Moscow has been overthrown, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen.

Moscow, the report adds, has been captured by General Korniloff, supported by German troops. General Kaledines is said to have cooperated.

Advices from the same sources assert that Grand Duke Nicholas has been proclaimed Emperor. Nikolai Lenine, the Bolsheviki Premier, and Leon Trotzky, Minister of War, are said to have fled to the Murman coast.

The Copenhagen newspapers, the dispatch says, give prominence to a Berlin dispatch quoting The Berlin Tages Zeitung as saying it had received a message from its Petrograd correspondent reading as follows:

"It is believed here in Petrograd that the Bolsheviki Government will soon be overthrown and that Kerensky is the man of the future in Russia."

The advices declare that the supporters of Grand Duke Nicholas have overthrown the Soviets throughout the Siberian Provinces of Irkutsk, Khabarovsk and Blagovieschensk.

The defeat of the Bolsheviki is said to have been made possible by the victories of the Czecho-Slovak forces and the treachery of the Red Guards. Several detachments of the latter are declared to have murdered their officers and then surrendered.

The Exchange Telegraph publishes its message containing the report of the Bolsheviki overthrow and the accompanying details "with reserve," and points out that the information emanates mostly from German sources and therefore should be received with caution.

London, June 28.—Dispatches from Copenhagen to-day carry unconfirmed reports of the overthrow of the Bolsheviki Government at Moscow.

The reports, which are received with caution here because of their origin in German sources, state that Generals Korniloff and Kaledines led the anti-Soviet forces which took Moscow. They add that Grand Duke Nicholas, a cousin of the former Emperor and Commander-in-Chief of the Russian army during the campaign early in the war, has been proclaimed Emperor.

Cohesiveness Lacking. A lack of cohesiveness is noted in the reports through their inclusion of a quotation from The Berlin Tages Zeitung, which says that "Kerensky is the man of the future in Russia," this hardly agreeing with the statement that Grand Duke Nicholas has been made Emperor by the counter-revolutionaries.

Generals Korniloff and Kaledines are said to have been assisted by German troops in the reported capture of Moscow and this adds another note of confusion to the account, as no German troops have been reported near enough to Moscow to render the generals any aid, even if Germany were inclined to array herself definitely against the Bolsheviki authorities, which she has seemed undispensed to do.

The two generals named, it may be noted, have both previously been reported to be killed in battle or assassinated.

Washington Skeptical. Washington, June 28.—All reports of sensational developments in Russia are treated by officials here with the utmost reserve and with a disposition to believe nothing until the information comes through direct official circles. In regard to anything that comes out of Berlin or from any German source, State Department officials are frankly skeptical.

War Records Office in London Doing Very Extensive Work

Ottawa, June 28.—That the Canadian War Records Office in England is doing highly valuable work, the importance of which is hardly realized in Canada, is indicated in the following article issued by the Militia Department to-day.

"Under Lord Beaverbrook the Canadian War Records Office has been doing splendid work. Its official photographs, its moving picture films and its contemporary histories have been special exclusive features. These features have resulted in Canada's war effort becoming a byword in all parts of the world. The books have been translated into many languages and the pictures sent to many lands."

Amsterdam, June 28.—Rumors are in circulation, say The Echo Belge, that an epidemic of typhoid is raging among the German soldiers in Northern France. Several units are reported to have had virtually their entire personnel affected with this disease. This, together with losses in the last offensive, is said to account for the delay in resuming the offensive.

VON KUEHLMANN
SUFFERED HECKLING

Socialist Deputy Pointed Out
Americans in France Despite U Boats

Washington, June 28.—German Socialists heard of Secretary Baker's announcement on June 19 that more than 700,000 American soldiers had been sent to France, in time to use the information in heckling Foreign Minister von Kuehlmann during his speech in the Reichstag on Monday.

Advice reaching France through a neutral country and received here by cable, quote Hase, one of the Socialist deputies, as blaming the war on Austria, denouncing the policy of the German Government and ridiculing the failure of the submarines to keep American soldiers out of France. He said: "In our country the ruling party is military. It is very desirable that this situation should be cleared up—at least that General Ludendorff should take the responsibility of power instead of the Chancellor.

Correspondent Says Allies
Could Easily Put Down Opposition in Siberia

London, June 28.—That the Bolsheviks in Siberia are weak and could be overthrown easily but for the support of German soldiers is the contention of the Harbin correspondent of The Daily Mail. In a long dispatch dated June 23 he says that of 20,000 prisoners fighting on the side of the Bolsheviks in Trans-Bakalia, 4,000 are Magyars, who are the chief source of the Bolshevik strength. Two or three Allied divisions, says the correspondent, could put down all opposition in Siberia. He adds:

"The weakness of the Bolsheviks may be imagined from the fact that a few scattered Czech-Slovak forces are able to hold the Siberian railway for a distance of 1,500 miles and keep in touch with the counter-revolutionary movement in Southeastern Russia led by Gen. Alexieff.

"Bolshevism is a living corpse. Allied intervention is vital, not only to save the Russians from the Germans, but to save the Russians from themselves.

Australian Prime Minister Says
Empire Should Change
Economic System

London, June 27.—Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency, June 28.—At a luncheon given by the London Chamber of Commerce in the Cannon Street Hotel, Mr. Hon. W. M. Hughes, Prime Minister of Australia, said the Allies were facing the supreme crisis of the war. The next few weeks were pregnant with tremendous possibilities.

The German militarists fully recognized that they must either achieve a decisive victory now or continue a hopeless struggle against fully increasing forces. It would be foolish for the Allies to underestimate the immediate danger, but it was clear that the enemy was becoming increasingly anxious.

The change in the German tone, Mr. Hughes thought, was due to a realization of the great effort of the United States. The Germans also knew that the Anglo-French armies were confidently awaiting the next onslaught, while the much vaunted Austrian offensive had spent itself and any day might see the Austrian army in headlong rout and the civil population openly rebelling.

TWO STEPS.

Two things were necessary to enable the British to hold their control after the war, said Mr. Hughes. First, the ability to defend themselves against their enemies; second, the ability to produce wealth and develop the economic resources of labor and capital for the support of numbers of virile and happy people.

THE LATEST FROM RUSSIA.

It is a very dull day on which Russia does not produce a batch of sensational reports, but the last few days have been especially prolific in this respect.

Whether Lenine and Trotzky have been overthrown yet or not, there is little doubt that their eclipse is at hand.

When the Czech-Slovak troops took possession of the trans-Siberian railroad line for 1,200 miles they drove another nail into the coffin the Bolsheviks made for themselves when they betrayed their country to the Huns.

The report that Korniloff—who, by the way, was said to have been killed months ago,—at the head of "German troops" has overthrown the Bolsheviks comes from German sources and the reference to German soldiers may be designed to allay the anxiety which, it is foreseen, a change of leadership in Russian would produce in Germany.

Russia will regain her feet. She always has done so and she has been dismembered and torn with civil war before, but the process of restoration has taken time, for a year is only a flash in the life of a nation.

RAISED A ROW.

According to reports purporting to come from Germany through neutral channels Dr. von Kuehlmann is about to lose his job on account of his speech in the Reichstag a few days ago.

the German Embassy in London when Prince Lichnowsky was Ambassador and while subordinate to the Prince was really the secret Ambassador of the Prussian warlord and for whom Lichnowsky, a man of lofty motives and a sincere peace-worker, was skilfully used as camouflage unknown to himself.

"The impression became ever stronger that we desired war in all circumstances. Otherwise our attitude in a question which, after all, did not directly concern us, was unintelligible.

"After that events moved rapidly. When Count Berchtold, who hitherto had played the strong man on instructions from Berlin, at last decided to change his course. We answered the Russian mobilization—after Russia had for a whole week negotiated and waited in vain—with our ultimatum and declaration of war.

BIG PROFITS.

This is from The Monetary Times: The annual statement for the year ended March 31st, 1918, shows earnings of $15,991,485, after deducting manufacturing, selling expense, ordinary repairs, maintenance and foreign taxes.

Without Canadian nickel the Allies could not prosecute the war, but we hope this fact will not obscure the vision of the Dominion war-tax collector regarding the profits of the International Nickel Company.

It is said that the world's supply of hairpins will be exhausted in a few months. It will be impossible for the bald-headed man to keep a note of unholy exultation out of his voice when he tells this to his wife.

The Premier has given the Leader of the Opposition a designation that will stick. A "wash-basin politician" is pretty apt for wash-basin politics are all that Mr. Bowser has been giving us in the present campaign.

The Board of Trade no doubt will take note of the report that a move is on foot for Japanese trans-Pacific liners to eliminate Victoria as a port of call and proceed direct to Vancouver, and will act accordingly.

Kerensky must have more lives than a cat. Last year he was said to be in the last stages of tuberculosis, but now he appears to have enough vitality to conduct a propaganda tour of the Allies on both sides of the Atlantic, and this after suffering great hardship in effecting his escape from Russia.

Mr. Boggs is reported to have stated at the meeting on Wednesday night that some members of the Provincial Government had failed in their loyalty to the Empire by opposing conscription.

"The department is now preparing a series of stories covering the activities of each Canadian brigade from the time of its organization to its most recent operations. They will be in light narrative style. The most important actions will be fully described, but due to space limitations, they will be given to the astonishing raids which have been a feature of the Canadian warfare.

WAS IN PARIS WHEN BOMBARDMENT BEGAN

Archie Writes Interesting Letter About Experiences

Archie Willis, formerly Shipping Editor of The Times, writes an interesting letter from the Canadian line in France. He has been away from Victoria for about two years, and has seen a good deal of the world since his departure.

"I have now spent ten months in France," he writes, "and, naturally, have seen a few interesting things. I got fourteen days' leave to Paris, and was there when Fritz started to bombard it with that new gun. It was quite upsetting for the people of the city, but we were not hit and our raids lived a miserable life for a few days, but after that they began to take it as a matter of course.

"On my eleventh day I was recalled to my unit as Fritz was then on the seventh day of his big drive. All troops were ordered back. I came up through the area in which they were retreating, passing through a town that had been burnt in an appearance and life was severely shelled all day. Among the refugees making their way back were old women carrying enormous loads and children staggering along, too.

"I am working on another 'O-Pip,' which I hope to get away to England before I go to the guns for my next spell."

BAPTIST CONVENTION

Starting Statements Made by Rev. William Stevenson and Others.

North Vancouver, June 27.—This afternoon the election of officers for the convention of Baptists of British Columbia for the ensuing year was held. The leading officers are listed by the following: President, Rev. David Long, Grandview; First Vice-President, Dr. William Russell, Victoria; Second Vice-President, Mrs. Spofford, Victoria; Secretary, Mrs. C. J. W. Pulton; Treasurer, Rev. F. J. W. Pulton; Executive Committee, D. G. McDonald, E. B. Morgan, E. Thomson, S. W. Mathews, Charles Bentham, William Stevenson, Mrs. Chapman, John Menzie, E. B. Pulton, L. R. Macnaughton, H. R. McGill, Dr. Macnaughton, R. B. Horton, G. R. Reynolds, S. H. Staines, Mrs. Hendry.

Rev. W. Stevenson, presenting the report of the social service committee at the convention, charged the police commissioners of Victoria with studied disregard with reference to the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act, and the Nanaimo commissioners with sanctioning the existence of a segregated vice district in that city.

Rev. Mr. Stevenson stated it was the opinion of his committee that there should be a law enacted providing for the prosecution of police officials, who, when appealed to by respectable citizens, refused to put the law into effect.

The convention adopted the report after a number of delegates had expressed approval of the action being taken.

In Victoria, Rev. Mr. Stevenson said, the Lord's Day Act had been practically non-operative owing partly to the lack of courage on the part of the police commissioners and partly to the stubbornness of the Mayor, who was strongly opposed to the act and appeared determined to bring it into contempt in the eyes of the people.

Records of Units. "A tabloid history of every unit in the Canadian Expeditionary Force is being prepared from the time of its mobilization. This will save the time of thousands of contemporary history files. He will have before him the dates of every outstanding action accompanied by references to the particular diary in the detailed history describing it fully. Thus through the forethought and systematizing genius of the Canadian War Records Office, the official Canadian historians will take up their great task with a great advantage over previous historians, and the people of Canada will benefit by the time saved in the compilation of the work.

Gustody Parcels. "Custody parcels have recently been taken over from the Records Office. These are parcels of documents from the regiments in France, which include many papers of historical importance and value. There are thousands of these custody parcels and it has been necessary that the War Records staff move to a warehouse building in that part of London by the city, in order to secure the space required.

"The department is now preparing a series of stories covering the activities of each Canadian brigade from the time of its organization to its most recent operations. They will be in light narrative style. The most important actions will be fully described, but due to space limitations, they will be given to the astonishing raids which have been a feature of the Canadian warfare. The history of each brigade will be contained in a separate booklet.

Short Stories. "A book of tense short stories with a strong personal appeal describing the actual occurrences in France, also is being prepared. It will contain twenty-five to thirty-five stories, which will do much to bring the personal side of the war close to the people at home.

do much to bring the personal side of the war close to the people at home. "An illustrated handbook of the Canadian V.C.'s containing a description of their deeds also is to be issued. There also will be a book of honors and awards, with descriptions of the more spectacular deeds."

JUNKERS AND BOLSHEVIKI SECRETLY AGREE TO CRUSH OUT POLES' ASPIRATIONS

"Fourth—The sending of agitators to Germany and Austria shall be suspended by the Russian Government. To Prevent Enlistment.

"Fifth—Russia shall exercise strict vigilance over Polish national groups so as to prevent them from enlisting in the Russian territorial army.

"Sixth—Russia shall consider violation of the frontiers of Lithuania and the Ukraine by Polish troops as a declaration of war on Germany and Austria-Hungary and shall aid in crushing such troops.

"Seventh—Russia shall prevent Russian citizens from investing their own or French, British or American capital in any industrial undertaking in Poland.

"Eighth—Russia pledges herself to recognize the eventual new state of things to be created by Germany and Austria in Poland and to defend it against Russia's former allies.

There was great political unrest in Poland last February after the Central Powers and the Ukraine had signed their treaty of peace, providing for the annexation of the district of Cholm by the Ukraine and while the Russian-German peace was being completed. The Polish Ministry of War saw resigned as a protest and there were strike outbreaks throughout Russian Poland and parts of Galicia.

Meanwhile the Polish Legion in the Russian army under General Mousnitzy, took up arms against the Bolsheviks when the latter attempted to compel the Polish command to submit to their orders. There was bitter fighting for several days between the Poles and Bolshevik troops but by the latter part of February the Polish legion had broken up. By that time also the unrest in Poland had died down, but it flared up again later in a series of strikes in Russian Poland, particularly in the Dombrowa coal fields.

CHARITY FAKERS IN NEW YORK RAISED MORE THAN $2,000,000

New York, June 28.—Backers of alleged fake war charity enterprises and soliciting schemes defrauded the public of between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 in New York City during the last year, according to a review of evidence presented to a special county grand jury by District Attorney Swann during his investigation, which terminated today.

THE LORD'S DAY.

To the Editor,—Under the heading "Miserable," a correspondent in your issue of last Tuesday asks, inler alia, on what authority the seventh day of the week, the Edenic and Jewish Sabbath, was changed to the first day of the week, as the Christian Sabbath? I dislike newspaper controversy in matters of religion, for as a rule it does more harm than good. But as he apparently is not seeking discussion but information, I take pleasure in giving him, as I understand it, the authority of the Christian Church for the change of the seventh to the first day of the week as the Christian Sabbath.

Any jurist will admit that under certain conditions, and in certain circumstances, a law is not binding. In the case of the Lord's Supper in the Christian Church takes the place of the Passover of the Jewish Church. Women were not admitted to the Passover, but they are admitted to the Lord's Supper. There is no command for this change, but it has been so from the days of the Apostles, which is considered sufficient authority. Who would say that women should not be at the Lord's table because chapter and verse cannot be pointed out which give authority to admit them to the sacred ordinance.

The teaching of Jesus is that while the observing of the Old Testament day is not binding, the institution of the Sabbath remains. In the Christian dispensation all that was peculiar to Judaism passed away, and with it the Sabbath, insofar as its Jewish characteristics are concerned, and so the first day of the week has taken the place of the seventh day.

There was in the early Christian Church controversy concerning circumstances of other matters of the Jewish religion, whether they should be retained or not, but there was no difference of opinion in regard to the observing the first day of the week as the Christian Sabbath. The New Testament continues the institution of the Sabbath, which has its basis in the Fourth Commandment, not only commemorating God's work of creation but also the resurrection of Christ, for on the first day of the week He rose from the dead, which event is the basis of the Christian Sabbath, commonly called the "Lord's Day." On the evening of the day of His resurrection He appeared to His disciples and gave them His benedictive salutation, and eight days after He again appeared and gave them the same salutation, thus setting apart and consecrating the first day of the week with special honor. Pentecost occurred on the first

KERENSKY APPEALS IN FREEDOM'S NAME

Asks Allies to Aid Russians in Establishing Their Own Liberty

London, June 28.—Kerensky comes with the strongest credentials, first, as the former leader of the Russian Socialists, who has learned by bitter experience the rocks and shoals that beset Socialism's course, and second, as the authorized speaker of the Socialist and non-socialist parties of Russia.

Kerensky has wisely resolved to confine himself to propagating the basis of the Russian revolution among the Allies. He has no thought or intention of returning to realms of political experiment. His mission is intended as an appeal to the Allies for aid in the only way it can be effective—arms and supplies to enable his countrymen to drive out the Germans and rejoin the fighting against the enemy of freedom.

At the Labor Conference, speaking on the Russian situation, M. Kerensky said: "I am here to appeal to the people of western lands in behalf of the Russian people. I am here to assure the Allies that Russia is ready to rejoin them in the struggle for the triumph of liberty."

London, June 28.—The British Labor Conference capitulated to M. Kerensky yesterday when he appeared on the platform at the close of a long afternoon session during which considerable anti-Kerensky sentiment had been manifested. With his appearance the opposition to him vanished, and before he had finished his speech he received a great ovation.

Not Begging. "I have not come here to beg or complain. The Russian people have in the past gone through trials like the present, and has always emerged strengthened and renewed.

Were Deceived. "The treacherous invitations to peace by Germany were not unmasked, and the masses of the soldiers, incited by fanatics and German agents, were deceived. Now they know what a never recognize the treaty of Brest-Litovsk, which is hurling Russia into the abyss of annihilation.

Tyranny of Bolsheviki. "All classes of Russians strongly protest now against the tyranny that again reigns in Russia. To my astonishment, some very serious European politicians consider Bolshevism as democratic, although it has abolished freedom of speech, has made human life the easy prey of every Red Guard.

Significance for World. "The fate of Russia has special significance and value for the whole world. The Russian people alone may not be able to overcome Germanism, but if they are abandoned by all, Russia will perish from want of blood, but she will never of her own will submit to the humiliating treaty of Brest-Litovsk.

ANNUAL REPORT OF MINES DEPARTMENT ISSUED YESTERDAY

First to Include Reports From Resident Engineers Appointed Last Year

Particular interest attaches to the document just fresh from the Government presses and published by the Hon. William Sloan. It is the first annual report of the Provincial Department of Mines to be issued since the six resident engineers under the 1917 legislation were appointed to the Mineral Survey Districts. While the essence of the account of mineral development in the Province covering the year 1917 was included in the preliminary report already referred to in these columns and amplified by the Hon. John Hart in his first Budget Speech, extracts from observations of the resident engineers themselves particularize the activities in the several sections of the Province coming under their immediate jurisdiction.

No. 1 District.
District No. 1 is entrusted to the care of George A. Clothier and comprises all the northwestern portion of the Province from Seymour Inlet on the south to the boundary line between British Columbia, Alaska and the Yukon on the north. It is comprised of the seven Mining Divisions, viz.: Bella, Cooola, Queen Charlotte, Skeena, Portland Canal, Chikilne, Atilin and Inuvik. Its total length is approximately 700 miles, of which about 400 miles, if Portland Canal be included, is open coast; the remaining 300 miles is east of the Alaska strip.

Mr. Clothier has the following to say in part: "The district in 1917 produced 222,819 tons, of which 78,000 tons was mined and smelted by the Granby Company, of Anyox, which tonnage includes the low grade quartz mined for use as flux. Several prospects have shipped small tonnages to the Granby smelter. An important shipper has been added to the list in the Belmont-Surf Inlet Mines Company, shipping to the Tacoma smelter 722 tons of table and flotation products. The only other steady shipper was the Ikeda Mines, on Moresby Island, its tonnage amounting to 1,900 tons shipped to the Granby Company. The Drum Lummon Copper Mines, Limited, developing a property on Douglas Channel, made a small smelter test shipment. The present bond holders of the Bush property, on Salmon River, Portland Canal, are raving and several hundred tons of gold-silver ore, from the mine to Eleven-mile, and will haul from there to the beach on double-enders for shipment to the smelter. The Dolly Varden Mines Company had planned to ship steadily all winter from its property in the Alice Arm section, but was disappointed in the non-completion of the railroad."

North Eastern District.
North Eastern District is taken care of by John D. Galloway, and in view of the vast amount of territory the resident engineer has set out his report sectionwise divided as follows:
Omineca Division—Skeena River

Sub-district; Hazelton Sub-district; Telkwa Sub-district; Manson Sub-district.
Cariboo Division—Barkerville Sub-district; Port George-Fraser River Sub-district.
Queenal Division—Queenal River Sub-district; Timothy Mountain Sub-district.
Generally summarizing the activity of his district Mr. Galloway has the following to say in part: "The mineral production of the North-eastern District for 1917 was a little less than in the year 1916. The principal reason for this decrease in value of output was, first, a smaller production of placer gold in all parts of the district, and, secondly, to the fact that the two principal lode mines—the Rocher De-boule and Silver Standard—were only shipping during one-half of the year. Both these mines are in shape, however, to make a good production in 1918. There was, however, a greater number of small shippers in 1917 than in any previous year, which is an encouraging sign for the future. The lode-mineral production of the district comes almost entirely from the Hazelton-Telkwa section, while the bulk of the placer gold is obtained from hydraulic mines close to Barkerville, in the Cariboo Division."

Total Value.
The total value of the mineral production in the North-eastern District is given as: $29,897, divided as follows: Omineca, $187,141; Cariboo, $137,756; Queenal, $15,000. "It will be noted," he says, "that in the foregoing the Peace River Division does not figure at all; so far as is known, mineral production has ever been officially recorded from this Division. Prospecting for placer gold has been done on the Peace River and tributary streams, and probably small amounts of placer gold have been taken out in this way; it is certain, however, that this has never amounted to more than a few hundred dollars in a season. As a hopeful sign for the future, it may be noted that fifteen dredging leases were taken up in this Division during the summer of 1917. Systematic prospecting of these leases to test them for dredging possibilities, will be carried out next year by the lessees, Wadley & Galbraith."

"The production of zinc was entirely from the Silver Standard mine, and the greater part of the silver and lead production was also from this property. The copper production comes largely from the Rocher Debole Copper Company's mine. This property made a smaller production than in 1916 owing to shipments being suspended almost entirely during the first half of the year. Development during that time was successful in finding ore-bodies from which shipments were made in the latter months of the year."

"The production of silver, lead, and zinc from the Silver Standard was about the same as in the previous year, but only represents operation on a small scale. During the latter half of the year practically no mining was done, as the available labor was placed on the work of equipping the property with a new power plant and the new buildings of various kinds at the mine, and the building of a fifty-ton concentrator to treat the ore. A much larger production from this mine next year is confidently expected."

"A little over seventy-five per cent of the lode-mineral production credited to the North-eastern District comes from the vicinity of Hazelton. Of the remainder most of it comes from the Telkwa Sub-district, with, this year, two shipments recorded from the Skeena River Sub-district."

No. 5 District.
A. G. Langley, Resident Engineer for the Eastern District No. 5, is responsible for the following sections: Golden, Windermere, Port Steele, Revelstoke, Lardner, Alansworth, Elocan, Elocan City, Trout Lake, Nelson, Arrow Lake and Trail Creek.
He observes in part:
"During the year the mining activity throughout the various districts comprised favorably with last year which was a banner year in mining for British Columbia. Regarding the value of the production of silver, lead and zinc for this district, from the available information at hand it also compares very favorably with that of last year, in spite of industrial troubles and the decrease in the demand for lead for munition purposes. However, more zinc was produced by the electrolytic plant at Trail than in any previous year. The year's zinc production at this plant is estimated at 10,000 tons, representing a value of $3,000,000. The lead production for the district, although not as great as the previous years, shows an increase in value; the same applies to the silver production. There has been little activity in the gold mines, on account of economic conditions not being favorable at the present time for the mining of this metal, which has remained the same in price, while the cost of labor and supplies have increased materially. However, the gold production would have been much greater had it not been for industrial troubles, which curtailed the output of the Rossland mines about one-fourth of the normal amount."

Southern Section.
Southern District No. 4 includes the Grand Forks, Greenwood, Osoyoos and Similkameen Mining Division and in his report for the District Resident Engineer Philip B. Freeland says in his introductory remarks that there has been a marked activity throughout the entire district in the prospecting for both metallic and non-metallic minerals, especially those necessary for munition-making and for use in the upbuilding of our industries. Hitherto a great many minerals were imported to this country from Europe. These imports are closed to us during the war, and will probably be for some time after it ceases, owing to the necessity of reserving material for the upbuilding of the areas that have been destroyed. Below is a list of the minerals required for munition-making and other purposes:
"Metallic Minerals—Manganese, tungsten, molybdenum, antimony, chrome, sulphur ores, platinum, tin, zinc, copper, lead and iron."
"Non-Metallic Minerals—Bauxite, magnesite, fluorite, flake-graphite, stromantite, fireclay, sheet mica, potash and phosphate."
"Although most of the above minerals may be needed in large quantities, yet the present high price of the products is an incentive for more prospecting and development, and may be the means of establishing permanent domestic industries. In the Grand Forks Mining Division fair showings of chromite have already been discovered, the serpentine being particularly favorable to the occurrence of chrome ore. Stromantite float was discovered two miles and a half from the Ashnola river, in the Osoyoos Mining Division, late in the fall. Further investigation was impossible owing to the depth of snow."

Western District.
Western District No. 2, Resident Engineer W. M. Brewer, includes all that portion of the Province contained within the following mining divisions: Nainimo, Alberni, Clayoquot, Quinsin, Vancouver and West.
In further description of his territory Mr. Brewer says: "Measured roughly, the Western Mineral Survey District has a maximum length of approximately 300 miles from northwest to southeast by 175 miles from north-east to southwest, including the area of the various islands between the mainland and the eastern side of Vancouver Island, and contains approximately 48,000 square miles, including the area covered by the Gulf of Georgia, and the straits between the mainland and the eastern side of Vancouver Island, approximating 3,000 square miles."

General Remarks.
In his report a detailed description of all the properties examined during the season of 1917 is given under the various divisions in which the properties are sufficiently promising to warrant a description of them in the annual report. He goes on to say:
"The progress of the mining industry in the Western Mineral Survey District in 1917 has been characterized by more advancement, more prospecting and greater production than in any year in the past. Of course, the increased production at the Britannia mine is responsible to a very marked extent for the improvement in the Vancouver mining division; many prospectors were searching through the mountain, in the neighborhood of that company's properties, for ore bodies occurring under similar geological conditions. Another reason why prospecting was more popular in the district was the number of mining engineers who visited the various camps to make examinations of promising prospects in the interests of large corporations as the following: The Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, of Trail, B.C.; the Britannia Mining & Smelting Company, Limited, of Britannia Beach, B.C.; the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Company, with headquarters at Vancouver, B.C.; the B. L. Thane Exploration Company, of Seattle, Wash.; and engineers who represent such important copper magnates as the Guggenheims, the Lewisohns and the Dunn-Thompsons, of New York. In fact, there has been a more pronounced interest shown in a mining industry generally throughout the entire Western Mineral Survey District during 1917 than has been the case for several years past."

for Central District, No. 3, covers the following Mining Divisions: Clinton, Lillooet, Ashcroft, Yale, Nicola and Vernon. Mr. Thomson sets out the activities at Copper Mountain and the various groups in the Kamloops and Ashcroft sections.

=L'Affaire du Bonnet-Rouge=
The Christian Science Monitor.

L'Affaire Bolo has been succeeded by L'Affaire du Bonnet-Rouge, and as the curtain is rung down on each act in what has become known as the Paris Plot, the more the world begins to learn of that curious international octopus, whose mission in life seems to have been forestalled by the ready wit of Othello's ancient in the words, "Put money in thy purse." Some time ago an ingenious editor, viewing Boloin, or whatever anybody may like to call it, in its true focus, put together an interesting little document in the shape of a "Who's Who" of the Espionage drama. Such a document, it must be admitted, requires constant editing, for fresh culprits keep appearing on the scene as Captain Bouchardon continues patiently examining the dossiers which are almost daily presented to him. For instance, the first edition did not contain the names of M. Jouela or M. Vercauson, both of whom have been dealt with in the last findings of the judges of the third court-martial, in Paris. M. Jouela and Vercauson having indeed come more recently into the limelight in connection with several other whose fate is as yet undecided. But what is interesting is to find that whether a man is a politician or a journalist, a commercial traveler or a dealer in antiquities, a financier or even the ruler of a state, one and all may be drawn by the golden magnet within dangerous proximity to the blank wall in the fortress of Vincennes. Paul Bolo went that way a week or two ago and now M. Duval, manager of Le Bonnet-Rouge, has his face set in the same direction, whilst his various six associations have received sentences of from two to ten years' imprisonment. Le Bonnet-Rouge was an evening paper, published in Paris, in the interests of its staff were some of Duval's fellow defendants in the recent trial, Marion, his assistant manager, Landau and Jouela, both reporters. Early last year he pronounced defeatist policy of the British and French leaders, caused the police to make inquiries concerning it. As a result of this, the editor was arrested and sent to the infirmary of the prison at Fresnes. Here a few days later he was found strangled by a bootlace. The doctors at first were inclined to believe that he had been murdered, but they afterward changed their verdict to one of suicide, but the mystery has never been cleared up. Meanwhile M. Daudet, the son of the famous novelist, had entered into the fray by publicly accusing M. Malvy, who during the early years of the war was Ministre-de-Finistere, of treason. As a result of this, M. Malvy was compelled to resign his portfolio, an act which brought about the fall of the Ribot ministry. M. Malvy, it was proved, had actually been subsidizing the paper. His own explanation of this is that he did so in order to quiet the anarchistic element in the capital. In other words, that he permitted himself to be blackmailed by the anti-militarist element. In consequence, however, of M. Daudet's charges, and the revelations which followed, he was arrested and is now awaiting the trial he has demanded.

The next person on whom the suspicions of the police fell was M. Duval, the manager. M. Duval's visits to Switzerland attracted their attention. One afternoon, therefore, he was stopped on the French frontier, searched, and found to have in his possession a check for 164,000 francs, drawn to the order of a Mannheim bank. This ended in M. Duval eventually finding himself awaiting trial on the charge of communicating with the enemy, and it is this charge which has lately been heard by the Third Court-Martial, which has returned a verdict of guilty. Now had the whole matter centered round two such men as Almereyda and Duval, little attention would have been paid to what would have been regarded as a somewhat sordid effort to make money, even by treason, out of the war. The real interest of the trial centres in the relation of M. Malvy to Le Bonnet-Rouge, for it is denied by the prosecution that the Minister's whole connection with the paper was confined to the episode of the subsidy. The charge is that he was mixed up with the paper in other ways, and that his intermediary was M. Leymarie, director of the secret police under the control of the Ministere-Finistere.

It is this M. Leymarie who has been sentenced by the court-martial to two years' imprisonment and a fine of 1,000 francs for his dealings with Duval, it having been shown that at the time of the latter's arrest at the frontier he owed his release, as well as the return of the check he is in possession of, to M. Leymarie's orders. M. Leymarie, who was overcome by the sentence passed upon him, insists that he has been guilty of nothing worse than bad judgment. The court, however, was unamiable in convicting him, and his conviction which has proved the most interesting episode in the recent court-martial, not because of his own position in the country, but because of his relation to M. Malvy. As a result of this, Paris is asking itself what will be the effect of the finding of the court-martial when M. Malvy himself is brought to trial.

This, then is the story of L'Affaire du Bonnet-Rouge, but the most important acts of the great drama have still to come, when M. Malvy, M. Humbert, and M. Cailiaux himself appear before the judges.

Popular Sections.
"The most popular sections for prospecting, so far as can be determined by the number of new mineral claims located during the past year, are: The Indian River District, Seymour Creek, Jervis Inlet, and Lyell Creek, the Vancouver Mining Division; the Alberni Canal and Barkley Sound, in the Alberni Mining Division and the West Arm of Quatsino Sound, as well as in the vicinity of the Old Sport Camp, near Elk Lake, reached from June Landing, on the South-east Arm of Quatsino Sound. A very great portion of the season of 1917 was occupied by the writer in making examinations of properties for which applications for Government assistance for either wagon-roads or trails had been made. As these were scattered throughout the large district, where transportation is dependent on lines of narrow gauge with infrequent schedules, considerable time was often unavoidably occupied by the writer in travelling from place to place. During the coming season of 1918 it is hoped to so systematically work as will permit examination of portions of the district of which at present practically little is known, except from the reports of a few prospectors and timber-cruisers who visited the sections some years back."

OF VICTORIA THE NORTHWEST AND THE WORLD

WORLD'S RECORDS CREATED BY SWIMMERS LAST NIGHT

Magnificent Performance by Kahanamoku and Fellow Mermen; Huge Crowd Sees Event; Local Girl Does Splendidly

At the present moment the scribes of this continent are pondering over telegraphic dispatches stating that Kahanamoku, Lane and Kruger, swimming in Victoria, B. C., established four world's tidal records last night at the big Gorge gala, and that a huge crowd assembled to witness this magnificent performance. Five prominent business men of this city, holding the stop watches, recorded the momentous fact that Lane created world's record for the 40 yards breast stroke; that Kruger broke his own world's record in the backstroke for the same distance; that Lane besides covered the forty mark in unprecedented time, surpassing his former performance and laying up another record, and finally that Duke Kahanamoku established a world's record for the sixty-five yards, smashing one previously held by an Australian. A book wherein these facts are set down in black and white over the signatures of the timekeepers will be preserved for future generations, and claim will be advanced to the proper authorities in order that these achievements may be recognized as tidal records.

A Huge Crowd.
A huge crowd lined both sides of the Gorge, and even some of the trees formed points of vantage for eager spectators. It was reckoned by the officials who measured off the grounds that 5,000 people were present to see the great Duke in action. The top of the V. I. A. A. club-house accommodated the prominent guests including the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Barnard, and across were so adjured that the course was almost surrounded by onlookers. The raft from which the races started was adjusted by cables, and the distances were measured by surveyors, so that there could be no mistakes. Batteries of kodaks were going strong and deafening applause greeted the great swimmers, who made themselves immensely popular with the crowd.

Local Record.
It would be impossible to describe every race, but it was noticeable that the local girls and boys did remarkably well. Audrey Griffin, acquitting herself wonderfully, Miss Griffin created a world's record for the sixty-five yards, which shows that this city can produce swimmers.

It would be idle to attempt a description of the actual swimming of the champion, and it is sufficient to say that, according to their manager and their trainer they were swimming as fast as they ever did, and their times show this. Great excitement arose when Duke came out on the raft in his dress-suit and a navy-colored silk bathing suit. When the bronze frame of the world's greatest swimmer slipped into the water, enthusiasm reached its height, and the other boys were accorded a reception quite as enthusiastic, for people seemed to realize that they were witnessing events that are history-making, and that will be recorded all over the continent to the great advertisement of this city.

Some Performance.
Lane's greatest performance was in the forty-yard event when he established a world's record and outdid his previous times which have been considered the best yet recorded. Lane's backstroke swimming was a veritable revelation to Victorians, and, of course, Duke put everything else in the shade by his magnificent swimming in the sixty-five. But it was in the mixed relay that the champion really surpassed himself. When Kahanamoku started, Lane and his team had finished, but nevertheless the Duke used every nerve, every muscle in his body to make speed, and there is no doubt he was faster in this event than in any other, and it is probable that he broke his old time. Those who were present will not forget how he slipped through the water, but they will probably not realize that they were witnessing a performance equal to or better than that which shook the athletic world a few years ago when Kahanamoku swam at the Olympic games.

Many Did Well.
It would be hard to pay sufficient tribute to the sportsmanship of the local athletes and lack of space only prevents them being mentioned in detail. Billy Muir and Archie McKinnon starred and Miss Rosie Robertson and Miss Smith did well. Unfortunately, Miss Edna Currie and Mrs. Tait, owing to illness, could not swim.

The visiting swimmers gave an exhibition of their famous triple or in which they swam in line close up together and in perfect time, their arms and legs going like a machine. This is the first time they have done this stunt

KAHANAMOKU AND CO. HAD A RUSHING TIME ALL DAY YESTERDAY

Saw Observatory and Went Over Malahat, Did Fox Trot and Met Davies Twins

The pace Kahanamoku and his party went during the time spent here would have made ordinary mortals candidates for the nearest hospital. And indeed some of the V. I. A. A. people who were responsible for the good time given the visitors feel more or less like corpses. But, as was demonstrated at the gala, it affected the swimmers not a bit, and even after his splendid performance at the Gorge the Duke and his companions were quite fresh for the dance in which they made a big hit, especially with the ladies.

The programme yesterday started with a drive all over the country to the north of the city. The party visited the observatory and Kahanamoku, who is interested in mechanics, took the utmost delight in watching the dome turn around and examining, with Dr. Plankett, the machinery of the institution. Lane couldn't quite get the idea, but as usual he said with his big ivory smile that "it was fine." Kruger agreed. Then the party, in company with the entertainment committee of the V. I. A. A., went away out over the Malahat where they came back "Stubby" told everybody what a fine big lake they had seen from the road. But the Duke knew it was the sea all the time and played the ukulele at the same time in company with the other boys. Finally, after about an hour's preparation and after "Tait" had packed his trunk and played the ukulele together the party was ready and it proceeded by motor to the Gorge about six.

That Autograph Stunt.
After about an hour and a quarter's preparation the mermen took the water with results recorded elsewhere in these columns. After their performance in the sea the boys went up on top of the house and waited a great deal of everybody in sight. If the Duke hadn't muscles like bands of steel he would have had a cramp, so many were the eager admirers who jostled to get a press hand. But he greeted every one with his big radiant smile while the other boys blushed. Someone started the autograph stunt and before many minutes had passed the whole party, including their retentive little manager, was busy signing his collective signatures. The programmes were given to the boys and they were given souvenirs for many an admiring Victorian, and the Duke's bold splash will not be uncommon in the city.

Duke Meets Davies Boys.
After the autograph stunt, the Duke entertaining the others with selections from Hawaiian ditties and edifying remarks in the language of the islands, drove to the home of W. H. Davies, to whose house the autograph was given. The boys refreshed themselves after their exciting day with supper and altogether enjoyed a merry time of it.

Refreshments were served by the James Bay Red Cross and a programme of songs and music was rendered on the roof of the V. I. A. A. club house. The expedition in which the most was pulled off surpassed, said Mr. Merrick, anything they had seen on their tour. Which, coming from the manager of the party, is a big compliment to the ability of the V. I. A. A. and to its energetic superintendent, W. H. Davies. To put it shortly for lack of space, the gala was the biggest and most successful event of the kind ever staged in this city.

The following is the full programme:
65 yards breast-stroke—1, Lane; 2, Shaw (V.I.A.A.); 3, G. Simpson (V.I.A.A.). Time, 14 3/5 sec.

Among those present were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Barnard and their party, numbering Miss Vera Mason, Miss Jones, Capt. Harold Eberts and Mr. H. J. Musket. Others who occupied reserved seats on the boat were Hon. J. D. MacLean and Mrs. MacLean, the American Consul, R. B. Mosher; Major-General Lockie, C.M.G., G.O.C.; Capt. Martin, R.N.; the Mayor and Mrs. Todd; Major-General Sir Louis Jackson, of London, Eng.; Reeve Coles, of Esquimalt; Mr. Justice Eberts and Mrs. Eberts; Mr. Justice McPhillips, T. W. Patterson and Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Harold Fleming, F. W. Jones, Charles Williams and D. J. Angus, representing the Victoria Red Cross Society; Miss Jones, Miss Hilda Fleming, Joshua Kingham, representing the Board of Trade; J. F. Scott, of the Rotary Club, and Mrs. Scott; Kenneth Ferguson, representing the Canadian Club, and Mrs. Ferguson. Mr.

will do some tall talking about the old town all over the continent, and Victoria will be mentioned in all Mr. Merrick's articles to his paper in Honolulu. It was certainly a profitable visit, and the ideas of the world champions on the subject of the V. I. A. A.'s way of running things was best expressed in the Duke's parting words as he strode up the gang plank: "We'll come back if we have to swim!"

Those boys with their fine unassuming modesty made some hit here.

KAHANAMOKU'S PARTY WILL PROBABLY COME BACK HERE IN FALL

Were Given Best Time They Had Since Leaving Honolulu; Wanted to Miss Boat

LOCAL SWIMMERS HAVE BIG FUTURE, SAYS DUKE

"We'll come back if we have to swim!" said Duke Kahanamoku just before getting on the boat for Vancouver last night. And his comrades and their manager Owen Merrick echoed this sentiment. So that, if all goes well and people here remain in their present frame of mind, the party of world-famous record-breaking natators may again be seen in action in Victoria some time in the late summer. They are due to swim in Banff on Sunday and from there they go to the East, appearing in the larger cities en route. It was formerly their intention to return to Hawaii by way of Frisco from New York, but so impressed have they been with Victoria, and such a time have they had that not one of them will rest until he has visited this fair smokeless city once again. The proposed visit is by no means an idle dream for Mr. Merrick, the zeal director of the party, told The Times late last night that he was almost certain that he would be able to make the trip, and the Duke stated emphatically he would be along anyway. It will be something for the athletic fraternity to look forward to.

Best City Ever!
"You can go as strong as you like in talking about how we found your city," said Mr. Merrick. "It is the finest we have been in since we left Honolulu and you have given us the best time on the boat. We expected about a thousand people to watch the boys swim, but look," he continued pointing to the multitude which thronged either bank of the Gorge, "there are not less than six thousand. Well, there's no good talking about it. We absolutely couldn't have been treated better."

"Then you and the boys really enjoyed yourselves?" he was asked.

"Say, listen," said the energetic fat little manager, button-holing the person who made this demand, "can a German eat sausage? Can the Duke swim? Can Tait play the guitar? Can—can—oh, slosh! I hate to say anything to people who have treated us like princes, but honestly, you do ask the darnedest fool questions. I've ever heard. Enjoy ourselves? Why, man, enjoyment has been our second name ever since we arrived. It's been wonderful. And we're coming back, too. We'd give anything to stay a week and in the fall, if all goes well, we will."

Mr. Merrick and the boys were particularly impressed by the way the gala was conducted, and their praises for W. H. Davies and the V. I. A. A. were unbounded. They agreed that it was the best-managed affair they had splashed in since starting on their trip. Which, considering conditions in California, means a whole lot.

A Natatorium.
Not only did the famous swimmers enjoy every moment of the time spent here, but they were much struck with the cleanliness and beauty of the town and its environs. They thought that the Gorge was about the greatest place they had seen, and in the words of the Duke, "if you had Honolulu's water here it would be the finest swimming place in the world, bar none. As it is, the water is much warmer than in some places in California. What you want to do after the war is to build a natatorium, and believe me, I'll come and christen it for you. And I'll bring along Lane and Kruger with me, eh boys?"

"You bet, fine," said the boys, who have never been known to say anything stronger than this.

Mr. Merrick grew quite eloquent over the city and Lane and Kruger, the silent world-beaters, said "Victoria" was "fine." "It's more than I expected," echoed the fat Duke, which from him means a whole lot.

"In one way I'm glad we're leaving," said Mr. Merrick at the dock. "If we stayed any longer I'd never get my correspondence in order, the boys would be physical wrecks, the V. I. A. A. men would never be able to attend to their business, for they have spent most of the last few days going around with us."

Victoria's Swimmers.
The Duke was keenly interested in the Victoria boys and girls who swam at the gala last night and he was particularly complimentary concerning Audrey Griffin's splendid performance. He stood on the top of the club house watching the races very closely and the other boys and the coach dropped casual remarks, which from the athletic standpoint, were like the omens of an oracle.

They one and all pronounced Victoria's mermen some of the most promising they had seen on the tour and they agreed that the boys had wonderful possibilities. "I'd like nothing better," said the Duke while watching Miss Griffin swim, "than to stay here and give these girls some pointers, for they have the interest and enthusiasm that makes champions. You can quote me as saying that you have some fine swimmers in Victoria, and all they need is good coaching."

Wanted to Miss Boat.
The party took such a shine to Victoria that the Duke had dark designs and villainous ideas of missing the boat so that he could enjoy for a little longer the "Wale of a Time" he was having at the Burleigh-Barnard dance, which is described elsewhere in these columns. The other boys were just crazy to see the boat sail away without them, and as they were driving to town they kept up a constant murmur of "I think we've missed the old boat, aloah!" The Duke was even more anxious to stay, and Mr. Merrick had a hard time to pack them onto the wharf. He, too, would have enjoyed nothing more than to remain here for a few days, but as he pointed out they must not break their engagements in the East, and by hurrying away now they will be more likely to come back in the fall. As it was they very nearly missed the steamer.

Big Advertising.
Those boys will be one of the biggest advertising stunts for this city yet devised, for they are as enthusiastic about it as the oldest residents. They

FANS AND FANTASIES

Fans want to be careful these days. Very careful. If they don't watch out on July 1 they may be disappointed. For instance, don't go to the Gorge and expect to see rough riding or to Oak Bay to witness a water polo match. The Hoagland crowd with the idea of rooting at a baseball game.

Jess Willard is some fighter sure.
And Tommy is the same. He couldn't beat up a cow puncher so now he's tackling the bull.

Fred Fulton said a while ago that he wanted to fight Dempsey and Miska all in one ring and at one time. Might we suggest that over there in France anybody can find good husky Huns by the gross?

There appears to be something wrong with the Vancouver summer footballers. No reports of stupendous stunts they were going to pull off have appeared in the Termin City papers. Perhaps they don't admit the press. Perhaps they don't admit the public. More likely they don't play soccer.

Con Jones must have had to dig down pretty deep into his jeans to bring Newsway Lalonde out to the coast. Newsway is no philanthropist when it comes to athletics and it's a cinch he didn't journey to Vancouver for the climate, the scenery or the good of his health. Poor old Con's exchequer must have felt about like the Bank of Berlin when the contract was signed.

For five hundred per game or a trifle less.

Newsway Lalonde gets into the mess, and against Westminster stands the stress.

For a dollar ten a whole long day. For a dollar ten gets into the fray. And stands the Huns' shrapnel for this small pay.

Which is peculiar.

Ladies' bathing dresses now closely resemble the food supply in Austria.

The only trouble we see about the local lacrosse team visiting James Island again is the terrible possibility of Sweeney sitting on a stick of dynamite or something. Then it would be all up!

The pro lacrosse players on the mainland seem to be having a hard time getting satisfactory referees. Some of the best of Canada's athletes have found that General Haig makes a splendid referee.

There has been so much hot air shot over the Willard-Fulton fight that it is now suggested that the bout should be staged in Mexico, where bull fighting is the national pastime.

It would seem that some athletes who play even in these times for the money in the game know less about the Red Cross than the double cross.

HAWAIIAN SWIMMERS RAISE $700 FOR RED CROSS AT BIG GALA

In spite of the fact that the whole affair only lasted about an hour the big gala held at the Gorge last night according to an approximate estimate issued this morning raised $700 for the Red Cross Society. As only twenty-five cents was charged for admission to the grounds along the course, and as a great proportion of the spectators thronged the opposite bank where no charge was made this is a remarkable sum. The raffish for the muffer knitted by Kahanamoku is proceeding with the utmost success and some 500 tickets have already been sold, representing $50. Tickets for the handiwork of the world's greatest swimmer will be sold until Monday night.

Fort Snelling, Minn., June 28.—Frank M. Troeh, amateur Washington State champion, won yesterday's regular event at the annual tournament here of the Minnesota State Trapshooting Association. He got 197 breaks out of a possible 200 and won the Hudson trophy. L. D. Johnson, of the Fort Snelling, won with 194, and Harry D. Taylor, of North Dakota, was third with 192.

The special event of the day for the medal donated by O. N. Ford, of San Jose, Cal., was won by Dr. F. H. Allen, of Staples, Minn., with a score of 189.

FULTON-DEMPEY BOUT

Baltimore, June 28.—Promoters of the proposed fight between Jack Dempsey and Fred Fulton will try to arrange an eight-round bout in Philadelphia or Jersey City, where limited bouts with gloves are permitted.

After the ruling of the Baltimore police putting the ban on glove contests during the war there was talk of trying to secure a place in Baltimore county, but this has been abandoned.

Justice Martin received the invited guests and ushered them to their seats at the boat, and was assisted by the entrance by F. F. McKittrick.

HOSPITAL SHOULD BE COMMUNITY CENTRE

Dr. H. E. Young and Miss J. McKenzie Speak at Vancouver Convention

Dr. H. E. Young, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, and Miss McKenzie, matron of the Jubilee Hospital, were among the speakers at the hospital convention which has been held in Vancouver this week.

Co-operation Necessary.
In dealing with the subject of "The Hospital as a Community Centre," Dr. H. E. Young, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, gave his ideas of what the hospitals should aim to be. The sociological side of the hospital work was becoming more and more important. One of the first duties of a hospital was to conserve the man-power of the Empire. Co-operation of the armies of the Empire with those of their Allies had brought forth co-operation in almost everything else. The great masses of the people, through the taxes, were paying the costs, and all were entitled to equal service. He dealt with the difficulties in the way of finances, which had faced hospital managements, and spoke of the acts passed in other provinces which had resulted in several municipalities getting together to establish one large hospital, and to do away with smaller ones, as this led to economy and efficiency of management.

Gospel of Health.
From these centres nurses, highly trained, could go out spreading the gospel of health through the community. In places where this system had been tried the cost was only about two mills on the dollar. If arrangements of this kind could be worked out in connection with their schools why could it not be done with the hospitals. As soon as the people of districts were organized very thoroughly they would be able to insist on their demands for decent treatment being complied with. In the prevention of disease, in child welfare, the most fundamental thing was education of the people. There were more deaths from measles than from almost any other disease. The Board of Health had asked the medical men to report any cases of tuberculosis which came to their knowledge, but he could not congratulate the medical fraternity on the enthusiasm with which this had been taken up. State control of medicine, and other phases of the question were also dealt with.

Hospital Economies.
Miss McKenzie gave a brief reading on "Economy in the Hospital," in which she cited many instances where savings could be made. She showed where a considerable saving could be made through utilizing bread crusts, small pieces of soap, rubber which has outlived its usefulness in manufactured forms, gauze, etc. In fact, she said,

The Liver regulates the health
ENO'S FRUIT SALT
—regulates the Liver

hardly anything should be thrown away which could in any way be utilized.
Other speakers at the same session included Major A. P. Proctor who dealt with the tuberculosis problem; Dr. W. Wrinch, of New Hazelton; Dr. McEachern, of Vancouver; J. J. Banfield, of the Vancouver General Hospital, and R. B. Leders, general purchasing agent of Vancouver Hospital, all of their papers being followed by general discussion.

They would throw out almost 37 per cent. of the cook-stoves in use to-day.
Why? Because investigations show that nearly 37 per cent. of them are not even worth repairing, they are so wasteful.
Why not investigate the range in your own kitchen? Find out how much costly coal it is burning, how much it is wasting.
And expensive food! How much of that it is spoiling!
And how much of your wife's precious nervous energy it is consuming every day!
You'd consider all these things if you were running a business proposition such as a restaurant.
Why not put your home on the same basis? Equip it with an up-to-date one that will burn costly coal saving instead of wastefully.
This Range has polished top (six hole), gas-consuming fire-back (burning the gas from the coals instead of letting it escape), large bottom cup water jacket (lots of hot water), plain nickel trimmings. A good baker and at last year's price. Two sizes.

Labor Representatives Meet Board of Trade in Interest of Local Port

Extremely Cordial and United Action Resolved Upon; Improvement of Facilities Immediately Urged; Tenders for Shed Construction to Be Called Tuesday

That tenders for the construction of a shed on Pier 3, at the Victoria Ocean Docks, the pier adjoining the one on which the Imperial Munitions Board Assembly plant is located, will be called for on Tuesday next, was the announcement made by Joshua Kingham, President of the Board of Trade, this morning. The Dominion Government some time ago made an appropriation of $50,000 for this purpose.

That the speeding up to completion of the port facilities, in which effort the Board of Trade, and labor leaders will co-operate, is the solution of the important question of retaining the present shipping brought to Victoria by ocean liners, according to the unanimous opinion of the meeting held by the Victoria Board of Trade this morning at which Messrs. Watchman and Taylor were present to voice the labor side of the question.

It was admitted by Captain George McGregor that there was an inadequacy in relation to the ability of the Victoria Board of Trade this morning at which Messrs. Watchman and Taylor were present to voice the labor side of the question. It was admitted by Captain George McGregor that there was an inadequacy in relation to the ability of the Victoria Board of Trade this morning at which Messrs. Watchman and Taylor were present to voice the labor side of the question.

A very friendly feeling prevailed between the Board and the Labor delegates, who assured the Board that they were willing at any time to render what assistance they could to promote the best interests of Victoria. President Kingham said the Board of Trade was glad to have the labor representatives present, and he thanked them cordially for their attendance. He thought it was a very fine thing to have a good idea of the Longshoremen's Union and the Trades and Labor Council would work in conjunction with the Board by wiring to Ottawa to urge them to speed up the completion of the facilities at the new docks which were now about to be begun.

Mr. Watchman stated he was only sorry that labor was not represented on the Board of Trade, and both he and Mr. Taylor assured the Board that there would probably be a hearty response to the request for labor to assist matters by wiring Ottawa.

IMPERIAL VESSELS ARE UNDERMANNED

Engineer Delegation Waits on Board of Trade Respecting Ships Built Here

That the fleet of wooden vessels built in British Columbia by the Imperial Munitions Board for the Imperial Government would be undermanned if they were to leave port with the complement as at present constituted was the contention made by a delegation of chief and second engineers which waited on the Victoria Board of Trade this morning, at the Board's request.

Ships of this class operating on the English coast would carry four engineers and greasers, or oilers as they are called here, on each watch. This, with a white crew. On the ships built in this province, complements for five of which have been on this coast for some time, waiting for delivery of their vessels, three engineers are provided, one white donkey man, with no greasers. This with a Chinese crew.

Claims Well Founded. After hearing evidence from several parties and listening to the opinion of Captain George McGregor, who held that the men's claims were well founded, it was decided that Captain Snowdon and Chief Engineer Adair, representatives here from the Old Country to whom the ships are being delivered, should be asked to attend the adjourned meeting of the Board this afternoon. It is possible also that Captain Trout, in the absence of R. P. Butchart, director of shipbuilding for the Imperial Munitions Board, will attend to give his opinion on the matter.

Type Little Used. The engineers allege that with the type of boiler used in the ships built in British Columbia, a type not used in ships to any extent during the past twenty years, it is not only impossible but extremely dangerous to set out on a journey of over 6,000 miles, without the aid of the additional greasers, and they state that even then they would be obliged to put in very long shifts.

Would Never Get Home. The attitude of the engineers was expressive of extreme loyalty. "We want to keep faith with our Government and take those ships to their destination," they said, "but it is impossible and it would be a menace to shipping to try to get those ships home under the present order of things. The ships would never get home. We would have to put in some port and we would likely have to send back here for some parts that we could not get. Without any bias at all we are satisfied we could not do it."

Engineers Willing. The engineers stated that they had every desire to put forth every effort and do everything possible, no matter at what cost to themselves, to get the ships overseas, and they had taken the matter under discussion with the Government representatives here but as they had obtained no definite assurance they were anxious to have the matter adjusted before they left port.

Ready to Sail. Three ships are nearly ready to sail. The first will probably leave Victoria in a fortnight, one ship following at an interval of every two weeks thereafter. In the trial trip of the first steamer it took six skilled men all their time to look after the situation. The boilers used in the local vessels are a new type that has only been used in about five steamers in the last twenty years, stated the delegation.

Board Responsive. The Board of Trade evidenced a lively interest in the matter and were of opinion that something should be done at once, though Captain McGregor pointed out to the men that the local Board of Trade was not constituted like the English Board of Trade and had not the same powers in such matters. However, if satisfaction cannot be obtained through local negotiations the matter may be taken up with Ottawa.

THE IROQUOIS AND CHIPPEWA ARE NOW TRAINING VESSELS

The Puget Sound Navigation Company's steamers Iroquois and Chippewa, chartered by the United States Government for use as training ships, have now been turned over to the training station being established at Seattle and will immediately be fitted with quarters for apprentices. The Seattle training station has been established for the purpose of training young men for positions as deck and engine room workers in the American merchant marine. The Iroquois and Chippewa have frequently been operated in the Victoria service relieving the steamer Sol Duc.

FINAL SHOTS IN SHORT CAMPAIGN FIRED YESTERDAY

Enthusiastic Meeting of Government Supporters at Princess Theatre

SIXTY CONSERVATIVES MET AT THE COLUMBIA

Between three and four hundred of the electorate had an opportunity of hearing something of the accomplishments of the present administration last night. The gathering in the Princess Theatre in support of the candidature of Major Langley was the final rally of Government supporters, and was marked throughout by a quiet enthusiasm which augured well for a big Langley vote to-day.

A Delusion. Mr. Oliver took an entirely different theme last night. He was concerned about the interpretation which had been lavishly bestowed upon that section of Mr. Giolma's platform, wherein was the covert suggestion of pension scale adjustment as an attendant result on the victory of the returned men's candidate at the polls to-day.

Co-Operate Not Antagonize. Major Langley inclined to the reasonable view that there was a good deal more hope of success in tackling the returned men's problem by co-operation with the Government than by the study and practise of opposition tactics.

Finances and Facts. The Hon. John Hart subjected the Opposition Leader's finance wizardry to a merciless X-ray process, and the negative obtained required no "re-touching" to show how far Mr. Bowser had been from truth.

Answered a Canard. Tumult on Tuesday evening prevented the Attorney-General from effectively answering the charge that he had virtually denied the soldiers in hospitals the vote.

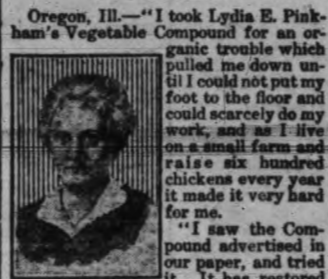

Mrs. Ralph Smith. Mrs. Ralph Smith followed a similar theme to that used by her in the afternoon meeting, which is referred to elsewhere in this issue.

Conservative Final Rally. It was a valiant little band of some fifty-eight members of the community who attended the Conservative rally at the Columbia Theatre last night.

Well-Named. "What kind of a man is Close?" "Well, he's one of those fellows who can take a glass and stop-providing you treat him first."

NOW RAISES 600 CHICKENS

After Being Relieved of Organic Trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oregon, Ill.-"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for an organic trouble which pulled me down until I could not put my foot to the floor and could scarcely do my work, and as I live on a small farm and raise six hundred chickens every year it made it very hard for me."

SOLDIER IS GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION

Royal Victoria Theatre Was Crowded at Ex-Pte. Giolma's Meeting

Ex-Pte. Giolma was given a great reception by the audience which packed the Royal Victoria Theatre to the doors last night in the candidate's last campaign meeting of the present by-election.

Show Your Appreciation. "If I had a thousand tongues, every one of those tongues would appeal to you to-night for the Returned Soldiers. If you have any appreciation for them you can show it by casting your vote to-morrow for Comrade Giolma."

Draws a Comparison. The speaker pointed to the fearful consequences of the Government's failure to make good on its promise of a realization of its duty to the returned men.

Red-blooded men of courage are on the firing line - and there are many anemic, weak, discouraged men and women left at home.

At this time of the year most people suffer from a condition often called Spring Fever. They feel tired, worn out, before the day is half thru.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the springtime of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier.

Windsor, Ont.-"Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and his Pleasant Pellets are wonderful medicines for home use. I used to suffer with weak lungs, smothering spells and sick-headaches, but since I have taken the above mentioned medicines these conditions have left me."

Polarine

FRICITION REDUCING MOTOR OIL

"Makes a good car better"

For Piston Rings

A piston ring "seal" maintains the power of your engine for bucking steep grades, for racing at top speed and for loafing along on high. When the oil film between the piston rings and cylinder walls has the correct body and lubricating qualities it holds compression tight, keeps your engine running quietly, makes your motor responsive to the slightest shift of the throttle.

IS YOUR CAR A GOOD CLIMBER?

Almost any car makes a good showing along smooth pavements and up gentle grades. But to take stiff grades on high, to get a flying start when you open the throttle, to get most miles and most power out of every gallon of gas, requires piston rings made gas-tight with an oil of the right body and lubricating quality—an oil that forms a seal between piston rings and cylinder walls, that minimizes wear, that helps the gas to give full value in dependable power.

Polarine

has just the right body to form this gas-tight seal between the piston rings and cylinder walls. It does not break down or lose its lubricating qualities under intense heat. It doesn't gum in summer nor congeal in winter. It overcomes friction and lessens carbon trouble—lengthens the motor's useful life and keeps it in prime condition the year round.

Polarine is made in two grades—Polarine and Polarine Heavy. It is supplied in one-half, one-and-four gallon sealed-cans, also in 12½ gallon steel kegs, barrels and half-barrels. There are also Polarine oils and greases for effective transmission and differential lubrication.

Buy Polarine where you get Premier Gasoline—at the sign of the "Red Ball."

CAMBRIDGE IS FRIENDLY TO WOMEN

One of the most amazing things to-day is the way in which gifts are being showered into the hands of women who have, up to the present time, been busily employed making the most of their opportunities instead of railing unduly at the "lords of creation" for depriving them of greater opportunities.

Coming almost as a shock is the announcement that Cambridge University has broken away from its conservative position, taken in 1877, at which time the Senate of Cambridge University voted to reject the proposal to admit women to the titles of degrees although not hindering women from qualifying for those degrees.

tion have all needed these women and have profited decidedly by the fact that the women were available.

To-day there is practically no objection among Cambridge graduates to admitting women to degrees the same as men. They are proposing to admit women as equals of men in matriculation, keeping terms, admission to examinations, and degrees; they must be matriculated from such colleges and public hostels as Girton and Newham Colleges. Fees for women and men shall be the same and the women's hostels shall be responsible for certain other fees.

The little word "but" blunts the point of many a good argument.

LANDED AFTER BEING ADRIFT EIGHT DAYS

Twenty-Four of S. S. Dwinsk's Crew Put Ashore in Nova Scotia

Shelburne, N. S., June 28.—Twenty-four of the crew of the former Russian steamship Dwinsk, which was torpedoed 700 miles southeast of New York on June 18, were landed at Sandy Point, near here, late last night by the Gloucester fishing schooner James E. Marshall. They had been drifting in an open lifeboat for eight days before they were picked up by the Gloucester vessel, and subsisted all that time on a small quantity of ship's biscuits and water.

Phillip Larbellesier, of Davenport, England, boatwain's mate, who was in command of the lifeboat, said this morning that the Dwinsk was torpedoed without warning. The torpedo struck the vessel's port quarter, and she sank rapidly. The captain at once ordered the crew, numbering 146, to take to the boats, which were there seven.

Narrow Escapes. "We all got away safely," said Larbellesier, "but some of our boats had a narrow escape, as the submarine shelled the ship as we were rowing away, and some of the projectiles came unpleasantly close to us. The submarine was submerged when she hunched her bows at the Dwinsk, and the first we saw of her was when she opened fire."

The Gloucester fishing schooner James M. Marshall, Captain Rodriguez, bound for the fishing banks, reached us at 7.30 clock last Wednesday morning when we were about sixty miles south of Seal Island, N. S. The fishermen evidently were not afraid of us, for they bore down on us and took us on board immediately. I want to say that we have nothing but fine words and appreciation for the treatment accorded us by Captain Rodriguez and his crew.

Two Boats Missing. New York, June 28.—The landing of twenty-four survivors of the steamship Dwinsk at Shelburne, N. S., today, definitely accounts for all but two boatsloads of the crew. Three boatsloads containing sixty-seven survivors had been reported missing. The vessel was torpedoed on June 18, about 700 miles east of the Delaware Capes.

Greek Minister to U. S. Speaks at Celebration in Honor of Greece

New York, June 28.—George Rousseas, Minister of Greece to the United States, was the chief speaker last night at a celebration of the entry of Greece into the war one year ago. Asserting that if the Allies had undertaken the campaign in the Near East in 1914, and had accepted the assistance offered by the Greek Government before the battle of the Marne they might have averted many disasters, the speaker said that since entering the war Greece had sacrificed thousands of her sons "for the triumph of the common ideal and determined 'to see the struggle through to the bitter end."

VANCOUVER'S STREET RAILWAY SITUATION

Vancouver, June 28.—By an understanding between the City Council and the British Electric Railway Company, the period before the expiration of which the city must give notice of its intention to purchase the electric transportation system or allow the British Electric Railway Company to extend its term of operation, has been extended to August 15, instead of October 11, instead of August 11. In the meantime conferences will be held between representatives of the company and the city council and other public organizations of the city looking toward the development of a new franchise which would be acceptable to both company and public and which would provide for extensions, contingencies in operation and service which have arisen in modern city transportation. Important modification of the light and power rates are expected as a concession from the company.

Toronto, June 28.—Again the administration of the Royal Air Force Units here has been criticized by a coroner's jury. This jury, presided over by Dr. H. J. Hollanders Led to Believe That Tonnage is Depreciating in Value

The Hague, June 28.—Advices from the American minister to Holland indicate that the propaganda, the origin of which can only be conjectured here, is being employed in that country to create alarm among the people over being operated under the control of the United States Government. The matter is so exploited in the Dutch press that readers are led to believe that the vessels are being taken over by the United States on March 21, in accordance with provisions of international law, are so badly managed that they are nothing of the war there will be nothing left of the fleet worth returning to the owners.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

New York, June 28.—There were many cross currents in the stock market here today. The copper stocks came to life and advanced from one to two points, holding most of the rise to the end. The railroads were dormant, showing even less activity than during the last week.

TO MAKE EXPERIMENTS WITH SOCKEYE SALMON

Exhaustive Tests Planned to Determine Time of Run From Banks to Fraser

Seattle, June 28.—Officers of the United States and Canadian Fisheries Departments, co-operating with representatives from this state and British Columbia, will make thirty-six exhaustive tests this week to determine the length of time sockeye salmon require to make the trip from the salmon banks in Washington waters to a point above the New Westminster bridge on the Fraser River, in British Columbia. Representatives of the Fisheries Departments of both governments will be here next week to make preliminary arrangements. The tests will be conducted throughout the fishing season, or approximately between the dates of July 20 and August 15 or 20. The two Governments will arrange to permit some traps to operate during the weekly thirty-six hour closed season. Salmon will be taken and marked with a button placed in the upper lobe of the caudal fin and then released. They will be caught again later in the Fraser River and the time between releasing and recatching the fish will be ascertained. It is expected by this method, which is an old and well-proven one, to determine how long the fish must be protected so as to permit them to escape to the spawning beds on the Fraser and its tributaries. The outer traps on salmon banks are the first in Washington waters to get the sockeyes and the point where they will be recaptured on the Fraser is the last that British Columbia fishermen can fish.

Big Controversy.
There is a serious controversy between Washington and British Columbia fishermen over the length of time that is required for this run and this year's experiments may be used as a basis for fixing a closed season in the fisheries treaty now being drafted by the two Governments. Washington fishermen proposed that a half closed season beginning July 20 and extending to August 1 be established in Washington and that a closed season from July 25 to August 4 be fixed for British Columbia. The Canadian fishermen contended the closed season dates should be identical on both sides of the line but it is believed the American and Canadian authorities have rejected this idea.

Canning Mussels.
State Fish Commissioner L. H. Darwin has arranged with the San Juan Canning Company, of Friday Harbor, and Professor Trevor Kincaid, in charge of the University of Washington biological station at the same point, to conduct a series of experiments in canning mussels this year. Professor Kincaid says that there is a large supply of Puget Sound mussels that are available for canning and which would add materially to the food production of the Sound.

CLERGYMAN DISCARDS SURPLICE FOR SWORD

Rev. W. F. France, After Ten Years' Mission Work in Japan, Prepared to Fight

Discarding the surplice to take up the sword in the great fight for liberty, Rev. W. F. France, a Church of England clergyman who has been engaged on mission work in Japan for the past ten years, is en route to England to offer his services as a combatant. "I do not consider that I am qualified to go to the war zone as chaplain, but I am eager to do my share, so am going to do some killing." Such was the startling remark made by the Rev. Mr. France to a Times man this morning aboard the Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus, in port to-day from the Far East. The clergyman is the reverse of being a bloodthirsty individual, but he realizes that it is the duty of every Britisher to render assistance to the Old Land in thwarting the German aim to destroy the liberty and freedom of democratic races. He has a brother who has been serving with the Canadian forces in Europe, Oliver France, of Kelowna, Okanagan, who he believes is in one of the military convalescent hospitals in Victoria.

To Join Artillery.
Armed with a letter of recommendation secured at the British Embassy at Tokyo, Rev. W. F. France will make his way to England and endeavor to secure a commission in the Royal Artillery. He is a graduate of Cambridge.

Capt. Arthur W. Dixon, superintendent for the Blue Funnel Line at Shanghai, accompanied by his wife, was also a cabin passenger by the Tyndareus. Capt. and Mrs. Dixon are on a vacation. Dying in war conditions it was impossible for the captain to go to England, so he decided to make the round voyage on the Tyndareus. "It is good to be on British territory and meet white people again," said Capt. Dixon, "and we intend to make the best of our stay on the Pacific coast."
Arthur G. Moorehouse, an American business man, has been in Japan for the past ten weeks investigating trade possibilities. With Mrs. Moorehouse he took passage on the Tyndareus. They are bound to New York by way of Seattle.

MONEY SUNK IN MANY DOMESTIC SERVICES

Laterals to Residential Property Were Installed Regardless of Necessity

During the dream period of prosperity half a million dollars worth of sewer laterals and similar service connections were buried in the streets of Victoria. Many of these will be rusted before they are ever used, and many may never be used. This statement was made yesterday before the Local Improvement Commission when objections were being taken to extra charges on Gorge Road.

Mr. Rust stated that shortly after he became City Engineer, he advised the Council to cease putting in these installations on the ground that it was cheaper to tear up sidewalks if the services should ever be wanted than to instal material which would mould while rust, but the aldermen had persisted in the policy of placing laterals at regular intervals throughout. "Theoretically," he said, "the practice is all right, but in practice it is not any good."

The cases before the Commission were those of John Barnsley, 435.4 feet at a cost of $9.00 per foot, and Miss Grace M. Parshall, 499 feet, at $9.23 per foot. In neither case had assessments been paid.

The reason explained by B. S. Heisterman for Mr. Barnsley, and ex-Judge Harrison for Miss Parshall was that they had lost the practical value of a large portion of the frontage by the construction of the Gorge Road bridge, which shut them off from a frontage of many feet of the property. It was stated to be impossible to build to use much of the property. They also raised the issue about mentioned of excessive laterals installed from the street which could not be used.

The Commissioners agreed largely with the remarks made about the excessive installation of laterals. The Solicitor advised them the other objections were outlawed by lapse of time.

A considerable period was occupied with regard to Burnside Road, where it was shown that realty values have gone to pieces, and A. J. Woodward was heard with regard to Brooke Street expropriation.

DO CARS DESTROY HARD SURFACE ROADS?
Quadra Street Owners Dislike Thoroughfare Being Turned Into Speedway

That additional traffic on a street does not necessarily imply extra wear, provided that the traffic is not exceedingly heavy, was the statement of City Engineer Rust yesterday to the Local Improvement Commission. This statement was made when a deputation headed by Alderman Dinadale appeared to put the situation with regard to Quadra Street, north end, before the Commission.

They pointed out that the greater part of the bulk of the automobile and motor truck traffic to Saanich points passed along the road, and that on Sundays particularly there was a stream of traffic. They wanted an assurance that the city would undertake the restoration of the road, as a trunk thoroughfare, at the time when the paving work was out, otherwise the general community would benefit at the expense of the frontagers.

Mr. Rust explained that asphalt paving rather improved under use, provided that the traffic was fairly steady and not excessive as in the case of Quadra Street.

It was pointed out that an extra heavy concrete base, and asphalt surfacing had been laid in this section in view of the fact that the Council had anticipated the changed conditions in the traffic on this street. Instead of contributing one-fifth as usual in paving schemes to the cost, the Council had accordingly made a contribution of one-third of the cost.

James Maynard, one of the delegation, did not consider that the character of the present traffic along Quadra Street improved the property, which was strictly residential in character, and considerable automobile traffic, in his opinion, was detrimental to residential property.

The Commissioners promised consideration of the two points of maintenance of the surface, and of extension of time for repayment.

MIDSUMMER MARKET
Decorations Are in Progress To-day for Auction and Raffle.

Decorations are in progress to-day for the midsummer market to-morrow, for which arrangements have been in hand during the last two weeks. According to Market Superintendent Smith the prospects of a record gathering in the building to-morrow are of the brightest.

A raffle of miscellaneous articles donated by various persons, and embracing all kinds of produce, is the centre of attraction. The proceeds go to Red Cross funds. Tickets for this raffle may be purchased until 3 o'clock to-morrow. The intention is to make a drawing punctually at 4 o'clock.

Previous to the raffle, it is the intention to hold an auction, when a sale will take place of miscellaneous articles donated for charitable purposes. In this case also the proceeds go to Red Cross funds. Most of the articles have been contributed by stallholders at the market, and the attraction is a patriotic one, not only making donations in kind, but decorating the stalls and doing everything possible to make the festival a success.
