

Lopsided Indiangrass

Sorghastrum secundum

A good background candidate, this plant is a larval host for several species of skipper butterflies. Preferring sandy, well drained areas, flowers are small and yellow and produced on long, drooping stalks for 2-3 weeks. It can tolerate some salt.

- Perennial
- Grows 3-6 feet
- Found in pinelands, well drained areas

Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	------	------	-----	------	-----	-----	-----

Flowering Time